

Playgroups

Playgroup is an interactive, fun opportunity for children and parents to play and learn together. Playgroups are usually supported by an early childhood professional who will give support, information and advice about children's health, learning and development.

For our community playgroup, a $2 donation per family is appreciated. All other playgroups are free.

Community playgroup

Families with children from birth to 5 years old can discover, create and imagine through play. We encourage parents and children to help pack up at the end of the session.

Time 9.30am to 11.00am on Fridays during term.

Intergenerational playgroup

A fun interactive playgroup for children from birth to 5 years old and their parents, caregivers or grandparents, held at Matthew Flinders Aged Care, Oxford Terrace.

Time 10.15am to 11.15am on Mondays during term. (On hold due to COVID 19 restrictions)

Song time

Our music-based song time playgroup helps young children to develop sound awareness and extend their learning. Parents, carers and siblings are welcome.

Time 9.30am to 10.00am on Mondays and 10.00am to 10.30am on Thursdays during term.

Nunga Playgroup

We welcome Aboriginal families with children under school age to our Nunga playgroup. We provide lunch, and transport is available if needed.

Time 11.30am to 1.30pm on Tuesdays during term.

Multicultural Playgroup

A playgroup for multicultural families with children aged 0 - 5, with a focus on supporting bilingualism.

Time 1.30pm - 2.30pm on Mondays during term.

Mums and Bubs

A closed group run in collaboration with the Transitional Learning Centre to support younger parents engagement in early childhood services.

Time 12.30pm - 2.30pm on Thursdays during term.
